October 8 Sunday

This year Susquehanna Stumble XIX will be hosted on Sunday, Oct. 8 by DVOA & SVO and it will take place at Fair Hill NRMA (Strawbridge Fields).

Short and Long Stumble Courses plus WYO recreational courses.

Course setter: Fred Reed (DVOA)

Event director: Julie Keim

The Susquehanna Stumble is a Billygoat-inspired event with a couple of twists. The competitors run between numbered windows in sequential order, but within each window there are several controls which can be visited in ANY order.

WHERE: Fair Hill NRMA, MD

WHEN: Mass start at 11:00 AM, Sunday, October 8, 2017

WHAT: The Long-Stumble event will be ~15 km in length, with commemorative towel for at least the first 20 finishers and the first 5 female finishers. The Short-Stumble will be ~9 km with commemorative towels for at least the first 15 finishers and first 5 female finishers. White, Yellow, and Orange recreational courses will be available with a normal start window of 10 AM to 1 PM.

COST: $ 22 for the Long-Stumble, $ 15 for the Short-Stumble.

TO REGISTER: Send an e-mail to furlong47@hotmail.com by October 5th including:

-Your name (groups welcome - please specify number in each group, their names, and total number of maps you would like)

-Whether you would like to do the short or long course

-The e-punch number you intend to use or whether you will need one provided. ($40 fee for lost rental punches.)

You can then pay at the event. Morning-of-event registration is available for an additional $5 ($27 Long and $20 Short). Recreational courses will be at SVO fees of $5/member, $10/non member and do not need to preregister.

Directions: Take Appleton Road North from Maryland 273, or from PA 896 take Appleton Road South. Look for Orienteering signs.
